4 NIGHTS - ROMANTIC PACKAGE

La Paloma Lodge nests atop a high bluff overlooking the Pacific Ocean and nearby Caño Island, in Costa Rica's isolated Drake Bay.

The resort is spread over 12 richly landscaped acres and surrounded by dense tropical rainforest. We have planted hundreds of plants and trees that are not only lovely to see but also attract a variety of birds and wildlife.

Scarlet Macaws soar overhead, nesting nearby. Toucans can be heard calling each other from the depths of the rainforest. Hummingbirds feed on the brilliant heliconia. White faced monkeys lunch on ripe mangoes, and lizards bask in the sun. The sounds of the jungle surround you.

INCLUDE:

- ✓ Four nights accommodation in Rancho Deluxe
- ✓ All meals
- ✓ Welcome cocktail
- ✓ Transfer to/from local airstrip to -Hotel
- ✓ All taxes
- ✓ Tour to Corcovado National Park.
- ✓ Tour to Isla del Caño National Park.
- ✓ Entrance to National Park.

All of the rooms and ranchos at La Paloma are furnished with queen and single orthopedic beds, hot water showers provided by solar and propane heaters, and ceiling fans.

Each also boasts an artistically tiled private bath, expansive balconies with hammocks, varnished hardwood floors, and a breathtaking view of the Pacific. The Lodge faces west, the perfect direction to catch a magnificent sunset over Caño Island.

At La Paloma, the tropical paradise is right outside your doorstep. The locals have enjoyed these beaches quietly for years; you'll find no trace of McDonald's here. An evening at La Paloma is a great time to catch the sunset with sand between your toes.
